Accessing MCAT Study Guides and Practice Tests through OhioMeansJobs and Learning Express Library

Starting at http://libguides.onu.edu/mcat, click on online resources, then Ohio Means Jobs.

In order to take advantage of all the database features, you will need to create an account with Ohio Means Jobs. You can access all the test prep materials anonymously, but you will not be able to start and stop tests or keep track of your results without creating an account.

Click on the link to the Ohio Means Jobs website under “Start using these resources…”

To create an account, first click sign in, then choose the option to register now in the sign in box.

Notes on registration:

You do not need to use your ONU email when you register.

There are a lot of required questions to answer in order to register. This is a state government website that assists people in finding jobs. You may want to use it now or in the future, so it is in your best interest to answer those questions accurately.

Once you are registered, go to the College Students menu. Study guides and practice tests are found by clicking on Online Training.

The content of this handout can also be found at http://libguides.onu.edu/mcat
Next, click Visit Online Training Center.

Select College Test Prep to find materials to help you prepare for a variety of career and licensing exams. You can also search for a specific test.

Select Graduate School Entrance Exams Preparation, then MCAT practice exams. Click Launch to start the test of your choice.

Choose which mode you would like to use while you practice.

In Practice and Learner modes, you can start and stop the test. Your progress will be saved. You can resume it by going to My Assessments.
Resuming modules and return visits:

To resume modules when you return, you can go directly to OhioMeansJobs.com, click on Backpack and log in. If you have not added any modules to My Assessments, you can go to the College Students menu then select Online Training.
